- President's Report

- First Years ($500 budget)
- Thinking drinks at UniPub at Tuesday 6 October
- Concentrating on handover and role descriptions
- Would appreciate feedback from the committee about how their role has gone, improvements and how the role should be marketed in the elections
- Will send a bunch of questions for people to fill out

- CoL: attendance of lectures – ANU 2020 vision may do away with lectures
- Academic integrity: CoL last year Semester 1 had three cases of poor academic practice, this year is 16 PAP and 1 academic misconduct
- Admin Report
 - Elections are confirmed for Monday 3 October – Wednesday 5 October and will be done online
 - Will try to compile a list of events so hopefully nothing clashes
- Finance Report
 - Merchandise has arrived so we can sell that in office hours
 - Behind on reimbursements
 - Meeting with ANUSA to deal with seven overdue BAS statements
- Education Report
 - Law in the Digital Age event this week: this event is in competition with Gillian Triggs
 - Food from 5:30pm – 6pm in the foyer, and speaking from 6pm-7pm
 - If you're available, please go!
 - Dan and Bryce are going to the ALSA Council Conference in Adelaide this week
 - If you would like to know what other LSS' do etc. please message Dan or Bryce so they can bring it up and consult on your behalf – let's make use of this forum
 - Elective Guides survey has been done for a while – this week they will be emailed out to all LSS members and put on the Facebook page – please encourage people to do it
- Competitions Report
 - This week we have the SF for all the rounds except for Negotiations
 - Still organising venues for the Finals

- Quite a bit going on with external competitions
- Two clients for tomorrow night have pulled out so if you are free from 5pm-7pm Monday night please help! Thank you Max and Ashish ☺
- Careers Report
 - Confirmed speakers for the event – DPP and PwC; awaiting confirmation from Legal Aid and maybe Bradley Allen Love
 - Firm visit to KWM is confirmed for Wednesday 19 October for three hours
- Social-Justice Report
 - Organising lots of fundraising events for Cambodia as we speak
 - Social Justice dinner night date might change to accommodate more people – 21 October
 - Waiting on speakers is the biggest concern right now
 - We have a few Cambodia lectures on before we go to the Social Justice Trip so people are free to attend
- Events Report
 - Thank you for filling out the Law Ball feedback form
 - Law Crawl clashes with Law Revue
 - Need help with the Law Crawl theme – please let me know if you have any ideas
 - Mental Health Week:
 - Wants to do yoga, coffee, breakfast pancake event and final event would be the Alternative Reality Check Careers Event
 - During pancakes, representatives from Batyr and ANU Counselling will be there – may have them on BBQs so they don't just stand around
 - Distribute flyers at the event
 - JD event will be combined into MHW as well
 - Rhea please send Ellen T a budget breakdown

- JD Report

- Involvement in MHW
- End of Semester Drinks
- Try to incorporate Lawn Bowls into MHW, or do it separately
- Committee is still happening

- Peppercorn Report

- N/A

- Wellbeing Report

- N/A

- Any other business: Elections

- Elections
 - Would be nice to have it centralised – put it on our actual website
 - Will put a poll up on when the Committee is free to have a sit down session or two for people who are interested in running in the elections
- Maybe supplement with a poster online which has the contact details of everyone on the committee
- If you ever have events you want to do – can advertise through Chancellery – people often put up events on the day of
- If people are bringing VIPs onto campus, notify Strategic Communications Team in Chancellery because they can help out
