

2019 OGM Report (Administration)

Vice President (Administration)	Grace Lee
Publications & IT Director	Sonny Scott
Publicity Director	Lily Shen
Peppercorn Editor-in-Chief	Zoe Saunder

Term 3

Task	Description
Hoodies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> The new hoodies which were designed by Lily (inspiration was derived from the Design Competition that we ran during the Summer break) were manufactured during the Winter break by ROJO Customs so that they would be ready for Bush Week Market Day. <input type="checkbox"/> There was a solid interest from students in the hoodies at Market Day. <input type="checkbox"/> The old hoodies and sweaters were also sold on Market Day where the proceeds raised were organised to go to this year's 'Cambodia: Law in Action' initiative.
Bush Week Market Day	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> I organised rosters for Bush Week Market Day. Most people were punctual and all who volunteered were enthusiastic, friendly and helpful! <input type="checkbox"/> There was a genuine interest from the broader ANU community to the LSS Stall.
Committee meetings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Committee meetings continued to run, like last semester, every second Sunday in the LSS common room from 6:30 - 7:30PM.
Casual vacancies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Casual vacancies were organised for these positions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> International Students' Director <input type="checkbox"/> Vice President (Equity) <input type="checkbox"/> Well-being Director <input type="checkbox"/> Witness Examination Competitions' Director <input type="checkbox"/> JD Education Director
E-newsletter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> E-newsletters have continued throughout the semester to celebrate all things LSS, let members know of any upcoming LSS events and also promote particular law-focused initiatives/events of our broader community.

Constitutional amendments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> I have worked with Rocky to draft the constitutional amendments up for discussion at the OGM. This year's OGM had some major amendments proposed, especially with regards to the setting up of an appointment process for all non-executive and FYO roles.
Publicity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Whilst Lily is currently on exchange, given the nature of her role and the invaluable support she provides to the LSS, Rocky and I have made arrangements so that she is able to continue in her role as Publicity Director whilst overseas. <input type="checkbox"/> Publicity continues on well with our Facebook page maintaining good reach and more activity on our Instagram account this year.
Publications & IT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Sonny's work on the Careers' Guide and the Competitions Guide was awesome!
Peppercorn	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Since establishing its own website, Peppercorn has regularly updated the website with incredible pieces! <input type="checkbox"/> Peppercorn is well on its way for its Semester 2 print magazines.
CCs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Internal initiatives' event has been organised by the Events' team at the Ruc on the 29th of September!

Upcoming

Task	Description
2020 Elections	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> I will serve as the Returning Officer for the upcoming elections. With the changes instituted to the process (moving from an election to an appointment process for all non-executive and FYO roles), Rocky and I have prepared the necessary and relevant adjustments to not only the Constitution but also the election guideline, timeline and procedures.
