

2020 OGM Report – Administration

Year in Review

Task	Description
ALSA	Attended ALSA AGM this year with President David in attendance
Constitutional Amendments	Worked over the break to refine the constitution to better align the ANU LSS with other ALSA affiliated law societies as well as incorporating further amendments to best serve the smooth operation of the society.
Committee/Executive Meetings	Transition to online format
Email Blasts	Utilised the LSS' email blasts to best deliver our firm sponsors materials to LSS members
Market Day (Sem 1)	From 2020 onwards LSS will look to continue holding a prime position in the centre of campus as the university's biggest society.
Membership	Successfully attracted more LSS members than last year prior to COVID-19 outbreak. As it stands LSS is at 363* members and growing steadily.
Third Party Contracts	Established a new a system of contracting out some of the LSS' major publications to third parties to best accommodate the heavy workload carried held by the IT & Publications Director
Peppercorn	Peppercorn Editor-in-Chief has continued to refine and produce the LSS' magazine
Publicity	Publicity Director – Katie Byrnes has worked tirelessly to continue promoting the LSS during these tough times which deserves the highest commendation

Upcoming

Task	Description
ANU LSS Elections	TBA
Casual Vacancy – IT & Publications Director	TBA